

Come and sing Handel's Messiah

at the Anglican Chapel, Lancaster University
Saturday 22 September 2007, 10am to 8pm

A unique opportunity to celebrate this masterpiece! Everyone welcome.

WORKSHOPS WITH BEN CRICK AND DR TIM RISHTON:

Rehearsal of Messiah - all participants invited to join in Performing Messiah - different interpretations

Playing 18th-century English music on the organ

The oratorio in 18th-century England

PLUS EVENING PERFORMANCE

with organ accompaniment

Fee: £10. Directions and parking information given on enrolment. Book by 12 September as places are limited.

Ben Crick is a charismatic young conductor, singer and cellist who has been highly praised for his ability to engage audiences.

Dr Tim Rishton has enjoyed a distinguished international career as concert organist, broadcaster, author and lecturer.

To book your place call 01524 592623/4 (07MUS01)

Department of Continuing Education, Lancaster University

www.lancs.ac.uk/depts/conted