

ST. GILES' CRIPPLEGATE

ORGAN RECITAL

THURSDAY 5TH MARCH 1981

AT 1.10 P.M.

GIVEN BY TIMOTHY RISHTON

PROGRAMME:

1. Prelude and Fugue in A major ..... J.S. Bach
2. Chorale Prelude from the Orgelbüchlein: ..... J.S. Bach
Christe du Lamm Gottes
Christus der uns selig macht
Da Jesus an dem Kreuze stund
O Mensch beweine dein' Sunde gross
Wir danken dir
Hilf Gott, dass mir's gelinge
3. Trois meditations sur la Sainte Trinite ..... J. Langlais
4. Prelude and Fugue in F minor ..... J.S. Bach

---

SILVER COLLECTION

Although the cost of mounting these recitals is not high, nevertheless they run consistently at a loss. In the light of this it would be very much appreciated if members of the audience would help to advertise them and also would continue to give as generously as possible to reduce losses and to ensure the continuance of this recital series. Thank you.

---

The Senior Graduate Orchestra of the Guildhall School of Music will give an evening Concert in St. Giles' at 7 p.m., tonight with music by Burgon, Mozart, Berlioz. There will be performances of Bach's St. Matthew Passion in St. Giles' on Saturday 21st March at 7 p.m., given by the Forest Choir and the Aurelian Ensemble, and on Thursday 26th March at 7 p.m., given by the Senior Choir and Orchestra of the Guildhall Schools of Music.

---

All other Lunchtime Organ Recitals arranged at St. Giles' this month have been cancelled. The next Lunchtime Organ Recital in this Series will be given by Gillian Rotchell on Thursday 2nd April at 1.10 p.m.

---