30p PROGRAMME

Astudiodd Timothy Rishton gerddoriaeth ym Mhrifysgol Reading, gan ennill bob blwyddyn wobr y Brifysgol mewn canu'r organ, ac ym Mhrifysgol Manceinion, lle'r cafodd radd Mus M. Erbyn hyn y mae swyddi ganddo ym Mhrifysgol Cymru.

Yn ogystal a'i weithgareddau fel datgeinydd prysur ledled Prydain a Gogledd Ewrop, mae ef yn Briforganydd a Chôr-feistr yng Nghlaseglwys Caergybi ac yn eglwysi Ynys Cybi, Sir Fôn.

Mae'n arbenigo mewn cerddoriaeth y 18fed ganrif, a cheir gweithiau'r cyfnod hwnnw ar ei record ddiweddar i'r cwmni Seisnig, Wealdon. Mae wedi recordio hefyd gyda Sain, ac yn darlledu yn aml ar y radio a'r teledu.

Timothy Rishton studied music at the University of Reading, where he won the Organ-Playing Prizes each year, and at the University of Manchester, where he took the degree of Mus M. He now holds posts at the University of Wales.

A busy recitalist throughout Britain and Northern Europe, he is also Organist and Choirmaster of the Collegiate Church of Holyhead and the Parish Churches of Holy Island, Anglesey.

He specialises in music of the 17th and 18th centuries, some of which is included on his recent record for Wealdon. He has also recorded for the Welsh company, Sain, and broadcasts frequently on radio and television.
