PRODUCER RHODRI PRYS JONES

The Artist must ensure that all electric and electronic musical instruments must be provided with 13 amp 3-pin plugs and the exposed metal work to which BBC Staff or members of the public may have access must either be properly connected to the earth pin of the plug, or must meet the requirements of BS Class II (all insulated or double insulated equipment). The BBC reserves the right to test equipment to ensure compliance herewith. The Artist shall be responsible for ensuring that the sound levels of all equipment supplied by the Artist do not exceed the limits laid down by the BBC and also comply with the Health & Safety at Work etc. Act 1974. The BBC reserves the right to use a sound level meter to confirm compliance and also the right to use automatic equipment for the disconnection of mains power from the Artist's equipment should these limits be exceeded.
